

American Medical Association End User Agreement Terms. Certain of SSI's products ("AMA Licensed Product(s)") incorporate information from the Current Procedural Terminology ("CPT") Data File, which means content from the print publication Current Procedural Terminology, Fourth Edition and CPT Standard data file published by the AMA (defined below) ("AMA Licensed Content"). Any individual or entity utilizing the AMA Licensed Product(s) shall be subject to the following End User Agreement Terms ("End User Agreement"):

(a) The AMA Licensed Content is copyrighted by the American Medical Association ("AMA") and CPT is a registered trademark of the AMA.

(b) SSI, as a party to a license agreement with the AMA ("AMA Agreement"), is authorized to grant its clients (each an "End User") a limited, non-exclusive, non-transferable, non-sublicensable license for End User to use AMA Licensed Content in SSI's AMA Licensed Product(s), for the sole purpose of internal use by End User within the Territory, which, for the purpose of the AMA Licensed Product(s) shall include, but not be limited to the United States and its territories. The sublicense granted hereunder shall automatically terminate upon termination of the AMA Agreement between SSI and AMA, unless prior written consent of AMA is obtained by SSI or a direct license between End User and AMA is entered.

(c) The provision of updated AMA Licensed Content in the AMA Licensed Product(s) is dependent on a continuing contractual relationship between SSI and the AMA.

(d) End User is prohibited from making AMA Licensed Content publicly available, creating derivative works (including translating), transferring, selling, leasing, licensing, or otherwise making available to any unauthorized party the AMA Licensed Product(s), or a copy or portion of AMA Licensed Content to any unauthorized party, including a subsidiary, affiliate, or other legal entity, however designated, for any purpose whatsoever except as expressly permitted in herein.

(e) End User expressly acknowledges and agrees to the extent permitted by applicable law, use of the AMA Licensed Content is at End User's sole risk and the AMA Licensed Content is provided "as is" without warranty of any kind. The AMA does not directly or indirectly practice medicine or dispense medical services. Fee schedules, relative value units, conversion factors and/or related components are not assigned by the AMA, are not part of CPT, and the AMA is not recommending their use. The AMA Licensed Content does not replace the AMA's Current Procedural Terminology book or other appropriate coding authority. The coding information contained in the AMA Licensed Content should be used only as a guide.

(f) End User is required to keep records and submit reports including information necessary for the calculation of royalties payable to the AMA by SSI, of the same type as required of SSI under the AMA Agreement. All records and reports required under this Section shall be subject to audit by AMA.

(g) The following U.S. Government End Users notice shall be included:

U.S. Government End Users. CPT is commercial technical data, which was developed exclusively at private expense by the American Medical Association (AMA), 330 North Wabash Avenue, Chicago, Illinois 60611. This agreement does not grant the Federal Government a direct license to use CPT based on FAR 52.227-14 (Data Rights - General) and DFARS 252.227-7015 (Technical Data - Commercial Items).

(h) End User must ensure that anyone with authorized access to the AMA Licensed Product(s) will comply with the provisions of the End User Agreement.

(i) End User expressly consents to the release of its name to the AMA.
